

Account of worke don By Mr. Clarke's men at the Kay Gate from y^e first of July 1705 to y^e last of Sept^r following

August y^e 14th for one man a day and five powder bar^{ls}
Ditto y^e 19th for one man and 12 shot barrells
Ditto y^e 26th for one man and 6 shot barrells

I'm James Best

King George's gate, Quay Gate: Stood on the West side of Oyster Street/Prospect Row opposite King Street in Old Portsmouth.
Portsmouth fish market now stands there.