

Dear Sir,

When you sitting or send to Newcastle you will then find a small quantity of Magazine belonging to Major Smith, or they you will also bring from there and take care of the same you'll see in the letter of Missings I have wrote the particulars as far as good medals, but should have you bring from Castel, all the particulars mentioned in the list of Stoves which came from before 13 since those that I have wrote to you about.

When you will obtain the return of Points Stoves immediately, and send the same after me, as which to for so do the deal with sending me the Number of the Card Castri-ides issue the last for pay, with the quantity that Messrs, Carbine & Pottel had, with the Number of I think for the whole.

I leave this place to Morrow Morning, and if, can think of any thing which I can serve you I will do so.

Yours truly

Bach is Welsh for friend.

Dear Bach,

When you either go or send to Nieubery you will there find a smale quantity of Baggage belonging to Major Keith w[hich] I beg you will also bring from thence and take care of the same

You'l see in the Letter of Business I have wrote the particulars as far as I could recolect, but I would have you bring from Cassell all the particulars mentioned in the Acc^t of Stores which came from England ... I mean those that Bla[] wrote to you about.

I hope you will obtain the return of Ponto[] Stores immediatly, and send the same after me, at which ti[me] for Godsake don't omit sending me the Number of Filled Cartridges issued the last Campaign, with the quantity [of] Musquet, Carbine & Pistol Shot, with the Number [] of Flints for the whole.

I leave this Place to morrow morning, and if [!] can think of any thing which I can serve you commonly o[]

Sincerely R Veale
