

Sir,

There came a Letter to the Board from my Lord Dartmouth this day to supply the Forces Encamped on the Isle of Wight with Ten Barrels of Powder, which I desire you will comply with and you shall have a Proportion sent you for yo^r Justification by next post from

Sir

Your most hum^{ble} Serv^t
Chas^r Lister

Office of Ordnance
7th Octob^r: 1710

Mr Hooper Storekeeper at Portsmouth

For the use of the Forces of the Garrison at Portsmouth

October 7th 1710
Ordered to be delivered to Mr Hooper in charge of the powder

L 39

October 7^h 1710
Powder to be Delivered to y^e
Forts en camp^d Isle Wight

Date stamped OC/7

For Her Ma^{ty}s Service

To M^r John Hooper
Storekeeper to y^e Office
Of Ordnance
att Portsmouth.

Sir

There came a letter to the Board from my lord Dartmouth this day to supply the forces Encamp'd on the Isle of Wight with Ten Barrels of Powder, which I desire you will comply with and you shall have a proportion sent you for yo^r justification by next post from

William Legge (1608 – 13 October 1670) was an English royalist army officer, a close associate of Prince Rupert of the Rhine. Lieutenant-General of the Ordnance.

Sir

Yo^r most hum^{ble} Serv^t
Chris Lister

Office of Ordnance
7th Octob^r 1710

Mr Hooper Storekeeper at Portsmouth.