

Mr. Jones 24 July 1719 to Send up the Guns to Woolwich

To Messrs Hooper & Baxter belonging to the Office of His Majesty's Ordnance at Portsmouth

Gent<sup>n</sup>

Officer of ordnance
24 July 1719

In answer to yours of the 20th relating to the badness of the guns on board Guernzy and Enterprize which you represent to be unserviceable, I am directed by the Board to acquit you that they approve of your Exchanging of them, and of your sending those that are unserviceable, as also those that are too low to Woolwich to be bored higher. I am

Gent<sup>n</sup>

Your most humble servant
Bell Jones

Enterprise formed part of Vice Admiral James Mighill's squadron at the capture of Vigo.