

Dear Sir

I have received and placed to your credit Two Hundred pounds by Imprest dated the 6 Instant for Wicks - your application for £600 for Incidents will probably be ordered on Friday and received next week.

The Demand for Randles is unnecessary to come before the Board there being a General order dated 15 March 1750 for the respective Officers to purchase from time to time and quote the date of that order which Mr. Allen tells me will be sufficient

sufficient to pass it in your account with them.

I have understood Mr. Ferris was expected in England, but he is not come nor have I heard of him.

Pray Remember me to all Friends and believe very sincerely
