

W. 252

Office of Ordnance 4th June 1794.

Gentlemen,

I am commanded by The Board to acquaint you that The Price agreed to be given for the Musquet Cartridge Waggon, delivered at Portsmouth by the several Persons employed in the Neighbourhood of Chichester, is £40 each Waggon;
And that an Imprest for the sum of £800 is ordered to be granted to the Storekeeper to enable him to pay for the twenty Waggon, reported in Your Letter of 3rd Instant, to have been received into Store.

I am Gentlemen
Your most humble Servant.

Respective Officers
Portsmouth

W. M. Crew
Secretary

W. M. Crew

Office of Ordnance

4th June 1794

Gentlemen

I am commanded by The Board
to acquaint you that the Price agreed to be given for the musquet Cartridge Waggons delivered at Portsmouth by the several Persons employed in the
neighbourhood of Chichester, is £40 each Waggon;
And that an Imprest for the sum of £800 is ordered to be granted to the Storekeeper to enable him to pay for the twenty Waggons reported in your letter of 3^d Instant to have been received into Store

I am Gentlemen

Your most humble Servant

R.M Crew

Secy

Respective officers

Portsmouth

Entd
