

Office of Ordnance
14th Nov: 1775

Gentlemen

Having laid before the Board your Letter of the 13th Instant, transmitting an Account of Stores which you are much in want of to enable you to complete the Ships now under Orders for Sea, and which cannot be completed for want of them.

I am commanded to acquaint you that Orders are given for the Stores specified in your Letter abovementioned, as also those remaining of former demands to be immediately furnished and sent to Portsmouth by the most speedy conveyance.

I am Gentlemen
Your most humble Servant
