

Office of Ordnance
17th November 1795.

Gentlemen,

The Master General and Board having been pleased to direct that all demands for Ordnance Stores for the Use of the Russian Ships of War now acting in Cooperation with His Majesty's Forces in the North Seas should be countersigned or approved of by Admiral Duncan or the Commander in Chief of the Fleet under whose Orders the Russian Squadron
may be directed to act.

I am commanded to desire You will attend to this Regulation in supplying

Respecture Officers
Asst. Master

such
C. D.

On His Majesty's Service Respective Officers of the Ordnance Portsmouth

N° 593

Office of Ordnance

17th November 1795

Gentlemen

The Master General and Board
having been pleased to direct that all demands
for Ordnance Stores for the use of the Russian
Ships of War now acting in Cooperation with
His Majesty's Forces in the North Seas should be countersigned or approved by Admiral Duncan or the Commander in chief of the Fleet
under whose orders the Russian Squadron
may be directed to act.

I am commanded to desire you will attend to this Regulation in supplying
such

Respective officers
Portsmouth

entd
