

Undaunted,
Feb<sup>y</sup> 1796

A Demand Made on Board His Majesty's Ship Hen Roberts Esq<sup>t</sup> Captain
For a supply of Gunners stores

Viz None supplied	}	Locks for Carronades	32 NP	8
		Seven Barrel pieces	6	8 none indtd
		Ball Cartridges For D<sup>o</sup>		1000

Approved
P. Parker

approved
H. Roberts

A Demand made on Board His Majesty's Ship Undaunted Hen<sup>y</sup> Roberts Esq Captain for a supply of Gunners stores Feb<sup>y</sup> 1796

Viz		Pou<sup>drs</sup>
None supplied	}	Locks for carronades	32-NP 8
		Seven Barrel pieces	6 8 none indtd
		Ball cartridges for D<sup>o</sup>	4 none indtd 1000

approved
P Parker

approved
H. Roberts

Manufactured by Nock of London, and known as a volley gun. All 7 barrels fired at once. The shot was 0.45 calibre creating a formidable recoil. These were made specifically for the Navy to be used in fighting tops to target men on the quarter decks of enemy ships.