Office of Ordnance
10th January 1706/7

Mr Hooper,

In answer to yours of the 17th Instant wee acquaint you that VeSsells are taken up to transport to portsmouth the Supply of Navall Stores for the Ensueing years service, by the first of which ships some powder shall be sent.
We would not have you send any of the unserviceable powder ordnance formerly ordered to be sent up to Woolwich and which is now remaining at portsmouth till these Ships arrive there who are to be loaden back with those guns as pass as their Tunnage will goe.

Wee are

Your loving friends
