

On His Majesty's Service
To The Respective Officers
of His Majesty's Ordnance
Portsmouth

Portsmouth, 2 May 1757.

Gentlemen,

The Right Hon^{ble} the Lords Comm^{rs} of the Admiralty having Order'd the Queen's Ship to be one of the Ships of my Squadron, and the said Ship being Order'd into the Harbour to clean and repair for the Mediterranean. I therefore recommend it to you to send proper Workmen immediately upon her coming into the Harbour; to take care the Ordnance Stores that are laid in, are being clean'd to save the Spring, and that you cause all her Stores to be Compleat with all possible expedition.

I am
Gentlemen
Your humble Servant
H. Osborn

Respective Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance Portsmouth

On His Majesty's Service
To The Respective Officers
Of His Majesty's Ordnance
Portsmouth

Portsmouth 2^d May 1757

Gentlemen

The Right Hon^{ble} the Lords Comm^{rs}
Of the Admiralty having Orderd the Gurnsey to be one of the Ships of my Squadron and the said ship being orderd into the Harbour to clean and Refitt
for the Mediterranean I therefore recommend it to you to send proper VeSsells immediately upon her coming into the harbour to take ashore the Ordnance Stores, that no time may be lost in her being cleaned to save this spring, and that you cause all her stores to be Completed with all possible expedition

I am

Gentlemen

Your humble Servant

Henry Osborn